

Diverticulitis Food Chart

FOODS TO EAT	FOODS TO AVOID
High-Fiber Foods	Low-Fiber Foods
Whole Grains: • Whole wheat bread • Quinoa • Brown rice • Oats Fruits And Vegetables: • Apples • Spinach • Berries (strawberries, blueberries) • Bananas • Broccoli Legumes (Beans, Lentils): • Black beans • Chickpeas • Lentils Nuts And Seeds: • Almonds • Chia seeds	• Processed grains (white bread, white rice) • Cereals high in sugar and low in fiber
Lean Proteins	Canned Fruits And Vegetables
Skinless Poultry: • Chicken breast Fish: • Salmon Eggs • Eggs prepared without added fat or spice	• Canned fruits and vegetables in syrup or with added salt.
Healthy Fats	Fruit Juices
• Avocados • Flaxseeds • Olive oil • Walnuts	• Fruit juices without pulp
Low-Fat Dairy Products	Refined Carbohydrates
• Yogurt (Greek yogurt) • Cottage cheese • Skim milk • Low-fat cheese	• Pastries • White pasta • Instant noodles
Fluids	Nuts And Seeds
• Water • Broth	• Peanuts • Cashews • Pistachios
Fluids To Consume	Fatty Meats
1. Water: Adequate hydration is crucial for digestive health and overall well-being. 2. Herbal Teas: Non-cafeinated herbal teas can be soothing and hydrating. 3. Clear Broths: Broths made from vegetables or lean meats can provide hydration and some nutrients. 4. Coconut Water: Provides hydration and electrolytes. 5. Vegetable Juices: Low-sodium vegetable juices can contribute to fluid intake and provide some vitamins and minerals.	• Bacon • Sausages • Processed meats (hot dogs, deli meats)
	High-Fat Foods
	• Fried foods • Potato chips • Fast food • Butter
	Spicy Or Highly Seasoned Foods
	• Chili peppers • Spicy sauces
	Liquids To Avoid
	1. Carbonated Beverages: High sugar content and gas-producing. 2. Alcohol: Can irritate the digestive system.